Mass Ministries

Volunteers needed:

Public Masses have resumed with limited seating, but understandably, there are many who are not yet comfortable with gathering in a crowd setting. Therefore, we are not scheduling Mass Ministers at this time.

We do still need Mass Ministers for the weekend Masses—one (1) server, a lector, and greeters. If you are present and willing to serve, please step forward.

Eucharistic Ministers are not needed as we are not offering the Precious Blood at this time.

Greeters are especially needed to ask people to sign in, remind them to maintain social distancing and wear a mask, take up the collection and have bulletins available.

If you wish to volunteer, check in with Monsignor before Mass and let him know you will help.

✠ Please Pray For All The Sick ✠

Due to privacy laws, only names requested by a family member will be added to the sick list.

Keeping the Flame Alive

How can we follow this call to be Easter Candles for the world?

Most importantly, we have to make sure we keep the flame burning in our hearts.

If we do, it will give light and warmth to those around us without our even realizing it.

Too many Christians have let the flame die out.

They call themselves Christians, but they live mediocre lives.

They have none of Christ's wisdom, courage, virtue, or joy, so they can give none of it to those around them.

But today, Pentecost, God will renew the flame in each of our souls, and it will be up to us to keep it burning, to feed the flame.

We can do that in two ways.

First, we have to make sure that prayer is our highest priority in life.

What oxygen is for a flame, prayer is for our Christian identity.

If you take away the oxygen, the flame will sputter and die.

If we don't make an effort to pray each day, we will become joyless, mediocre Christians.

Second, this year we can make better use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

When a candle is lit for a long time, excess wax can accumulate and start to stifle the flame.

That wax has to be poured or cut away so the flame can thrive again.

When we go about our lives in a selfish world, we inevitably do all kinds of selfish things, and that stifles the flame of Christian wisdom in our lives.

Confession is how God cleans away the stifling wax.

[During this pandemic, Monsignor is hearing confessions behind a screen in the servers room Monday through Friday, and Sunday from 7:30 to 7:45 a.m. And on Saturday 4:00 to 4:45 p.m.]

On this feast of Pentecost, let's especially pray for a new Pentecost in our lives, our parish, and our world, and let's promise to do our part to make that prayer come true.
