Sharing the Good News

Jesus revealed the future to us because he wants to give us courage.

Since we know that his Kingdom will be victorious and last forever, we can be more energetic and confident in building up that Kingdom.

He tells his Apostles that they will be persecuted, but they are not to worry, since "it will lead to your giving testimony."

This is what we are called to do - to tell others about Christ, to bring them into the Church, so that they too can re-establish an intimate friendship with God and set out on the path to eternal life.

Jesus tells his Apostles that they will even be betrayed by family members, but it doesn't matter, because he will still be protecting them: "not a hair on your head will be destroyed".

And so, he goes on to tell them, they should never give up in their efforts to follow Christ and help others follow him: "By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

As Christians, we are soldiers of Christ. We have been given a share in his mission.

People around us are starving to know the future, the real truth about the future.

That's why they are buying books about tea leaves and Tarot Cards and celestial prophecies, about witchcraft and magic and neo-paganism.

Jesus wants to save them from their anxiety and from the dangers of looking for answers in the wrong places.

And he has invited us to be his messengers.

We all know someone who needs to hear this message.

This week, let's tell them.

When we profess our faith in the future of his Kingdom, let's also renew our commitment to building it.
